NO HARMONY WANTED.

E. V. BREWSTER SAYS IT IS OUT OF THE QUESTION.

LARGE DEMAND FOR TICKETS FOR THE DOLLAR DINNER TO BE HELD ON APRIL 19—BRYAN CERTAIN TO BE PRESENT.

The desk of Eugene V. Brewster, at No. 26 Court-st., Brooklyn, was piled high yesterday with letters and telegrams ordering seats for the Chicago platform dinner in the Grand Central Palace on the night of April 19, when William Jennings Bryan, ex-Governor of Illinois, Mayor Charles of Haverhill, Mass., and Mayor Jones of Toledo will speak. The "dollar dinner" is among the favorite topics, politically, in Brooklyn at the present time, and a glance at the number of letters received daily by Mr. Brewster is sufficient to convince any one that the dinner will be largely attended.

Mr. Brewster yesterday received the following telegram from Nashville, where Mr. Bryan has been staying for several days:

"Nineteenth of April satisfactory, if necessary, but prefer 17th."

This telegram decided the committee, which had selected the 19th as the best date, and the Grand Central Palace has been engaged. Mr. Brewster has already received eleven hundred applications for tickets from various parts of the country, as far South as New Orleans and New Mexico, and as far North and East as Bangor, Me., and Canada. So numerous are the applications, he says, that the committee is preparing to accommodate at least three thousand persons. One letter from Las Vegas, N. M., was from the owner of a sheep ranch, who said that nothing could induce him to be absent from the dinner.

Several menu cards have been submitted to the committee, but the one which has met the greatest favor is as follows:

Oysters on the half-shell.
Soup, cream of celery.
Baked codfish, au gratin.
Pish, boiled red snapper.
Roast beef, New-England style.
Potatoes, American style.
Chicken, Fresh peas. Roast potatoes.
Ice cream in parlotte form.
Coffee, New-England style.
Domestic table water.

Mr. Brewster said last night that success is assured. He added that it was a shame to intimate that he and his associates are attempting to divide the Democratic party. That had already been done when Mr. McKinley was elected, and he continued, "that harmony is out of the question, and not desirable under existing circumstances. For years we have been trying to eliminate the influence of such men as William Jennings Bryan, and other politicians from the old Jeffersonian party. Now that the chance has come to accomplish this, instead of crying for harmony, we should be eternally thankful."

This afternoon he held a public reception at the Hotel Hamilton, and was surrounded by a large crowd. Colonel Bryan expects to be in Lincoln about April 1.

CACERES ABANDONS HIS PLAY.

ATTEMPT TO OVERTHROW THE PERUVIAN GOVERNMENT GIVEN UP.

Lima, Peru (via Galveston, Tex.), March 23.—A dispatch from Antofagasta, Chile, says that General Caceres, ex-President of Peru, who recently arrived at Arica, where he threatened to attempt to overthrow the Peruvian Government at the first opportunity, left Antofagasta today by a steamer bound North. It would have no chance of success, however, in the event of an endeavor to make trouble for the Government.

AN AMERICAN ARRANGED IN LONDON.

London, March 23.—John Holmes Agnew, recently a man of some family and describing himself as a printer, was taken to Bow-st. police court for the fifth time in a fortnight on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. The prisoner said that the United States Ambassador, Joseph H. Choate, was a personal friend, and requested that he be released.
